A.F.S. STUDENT

Let's play soccer instead!

Mary's family for a year.

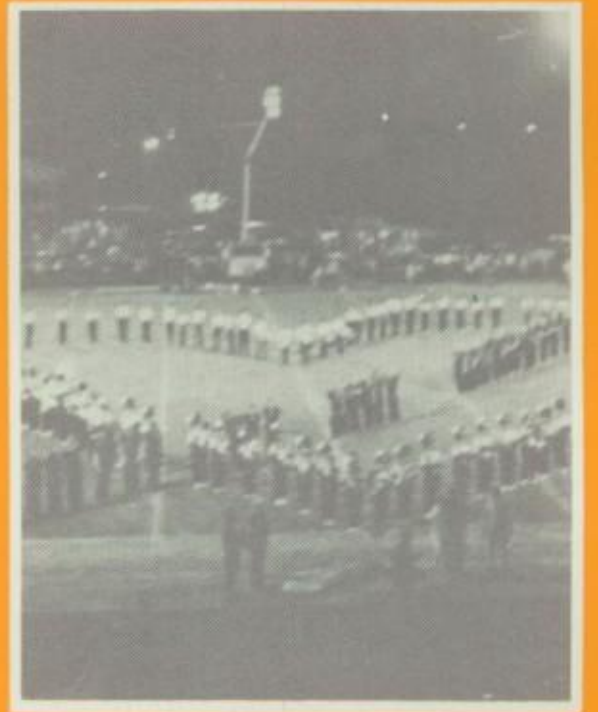

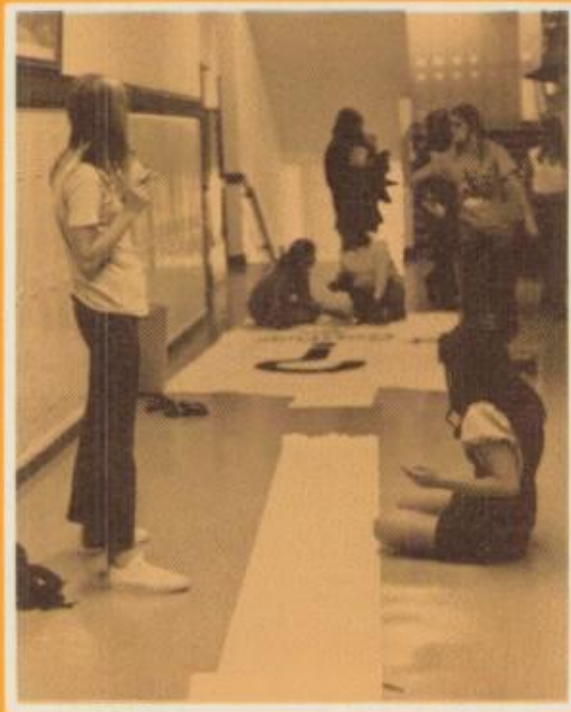

What class is she in 2nd hour?... You ought to see her... WOW!... What did she say?... She has got a beautiful smile... Her name is Mary McCarthy... Did she make her own pep club outfit?... is she excited about being queen?... forensics... Y-teens... Powder Puff... Speeches... Creative Night... Straight A student?!... Baccalaureate... Last Day... Graduation... I bet Deets are going to miss her... We are all going to miss her...

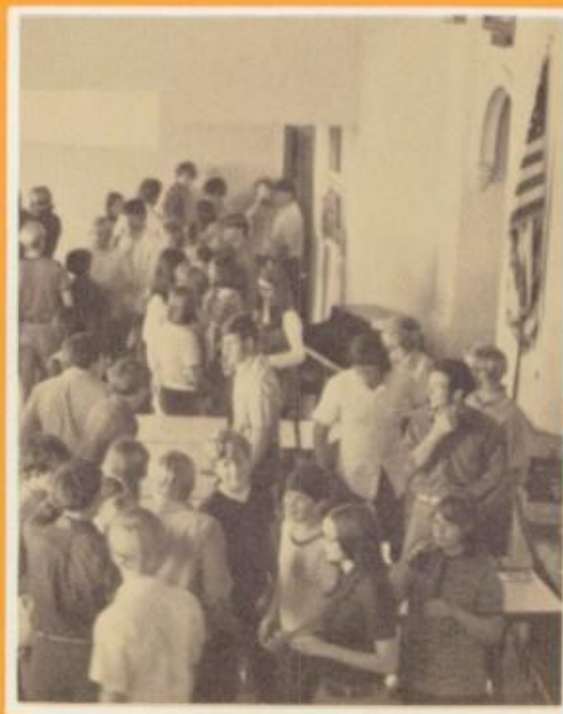

Thought I was past the bib stage!

Oooo... That English accent!

ACTIVITIES

JR. PLAY/ juniors solve the mystery of

"Here. . . here I am!"

"OK guys, don't blow it!"

"You better take the hint, Jean!"

Barb Smith is my stepdaughter? . . . let's get to work. . . we only have 3 weeks to learn this thing . . . Darrell, Darrell, speak to me! . . . OK, OK, you spoke! . . . Hey, Eilert, shine the flashlights! . . . did you see the reaction when those eyes came on? . . . are we doing OK? . . . Good. . . I'll sure be glad when this is over. . . I think it was better than "The Miser". . . Curtain! . . . Party afterwards-- everyone invited!

"We'd like to talk to you, Master Jacques."

"I have a proposal for you."

"They ate 'em! They really ate 'em!"

"How dare you!!!"

"Right away....sr!"

in an effort to produce "THE MISER".

United at last!

"My money! My beautiful money!"

"Hey! Look at that chick!"

"...and how about a nice lizard?"

"The Miser". . . what? Who's in it? . . oh, you are. . . what part do you play? . . hey, gang, . . . Lee's a ladies man. . . that's a new twist. . . hey, Wilson, when is next practice. . . well, what time. . . but why on a Friday night? . . . that's a rotten night to have a practice. . . who's not here yet? . . well, go call them. . . let's get with the lights and sound. . . we need a little action here. . . not that kind of action. . . hey, Hopkins, who'd you drop that prop on? . . . get the make-up on . . . catch him . . . that wasn't bad, was it? . . . YECK! . . . "The Miser". . . what? . . oh, that was just a play about a man chasing women. . .

CHRISTMAS PROM

Love Chimes at Christmas Time

Singing under the stars

... "What are you doing Saturday night, December 11?" ... going to the prom with you, ... if ya ever get around to asking me ... By the way, my dress is red, and you can pick me up at 8:00 ... What? ... No, I am not paying for the gas!

Juniors and Seniors and their dates danced to the best of the Innmates, December 11, 1971, at their annual Christmas Prom. A golden heart shaped archway, streamers, silver bells and snow capped mountains created this winter Shangri-la.

The beginning of a memory

That special one

Sitting this one out

PRECIOUS AND FEW

Seniors enjoyed the banquet prepared by juniors.

Keep smiling Miss Struble!

JR.-SR. PROM

....When's the prom?...Are you going to the banquet?...What color is your dress?...Mine's lavender...Who is your date?...Who all gets to decorate?... I'm so full I'll never be able to eat again! ...Come on lets get our pictures taken! ...Are you doing anything when the dance is over?...

A memorable evening for Mary.

"Precious and Few," the theme, was sung by Vicki Bruce.

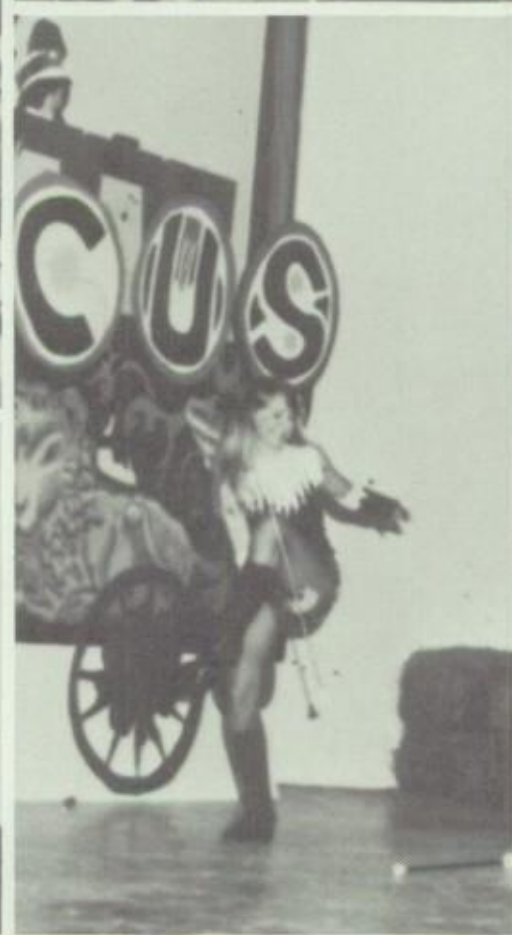

The Heaven supplied music for the Jr.-Sr. Prom.

THE CIRCUS

It's only two weeks away!... You mean we have to learn this dance in ten days?... I'm a hippo... We need a fat lady... Anyone interested in becoming a strong man?... I forgot the words to that song... That little kid wants a sack of popcorn... Quiet, please... Lights... Pull the curtain... Ladies and gentlemen...

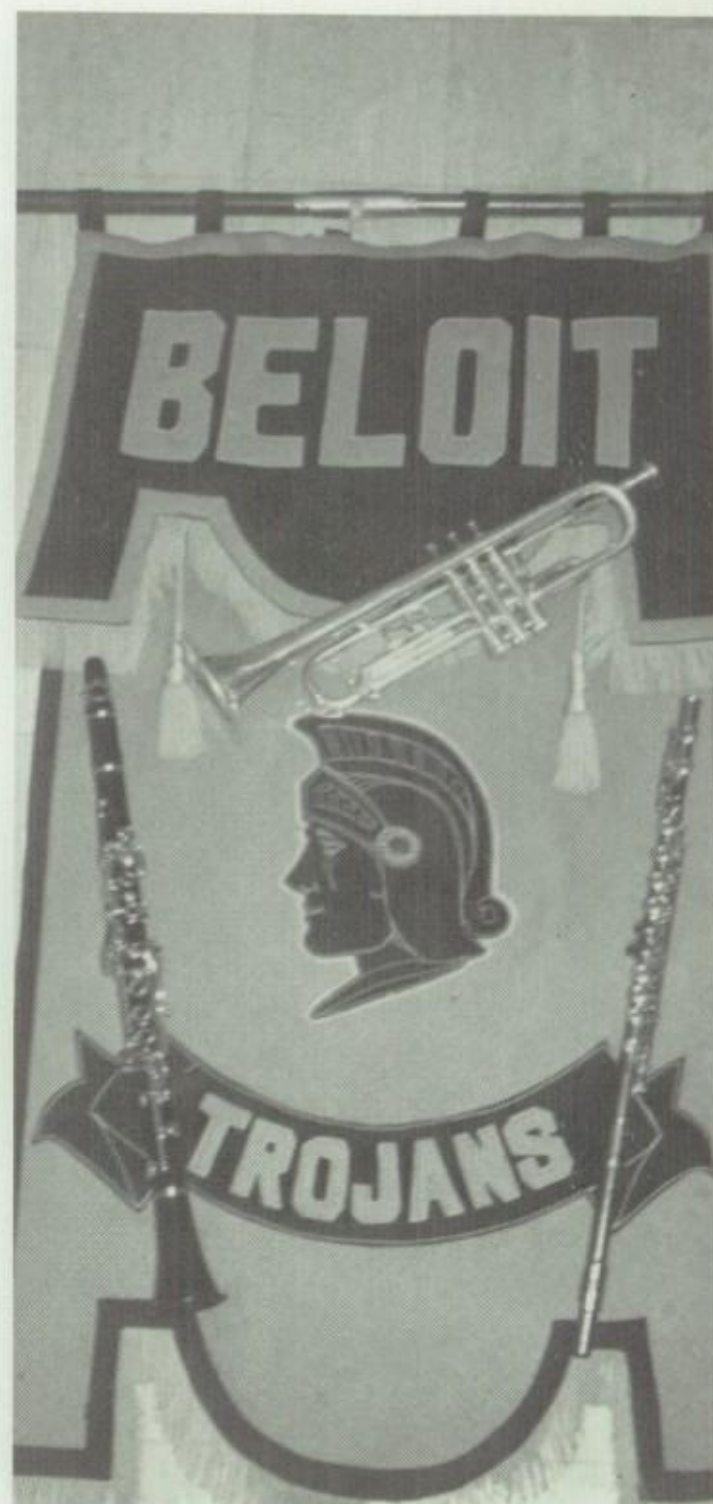

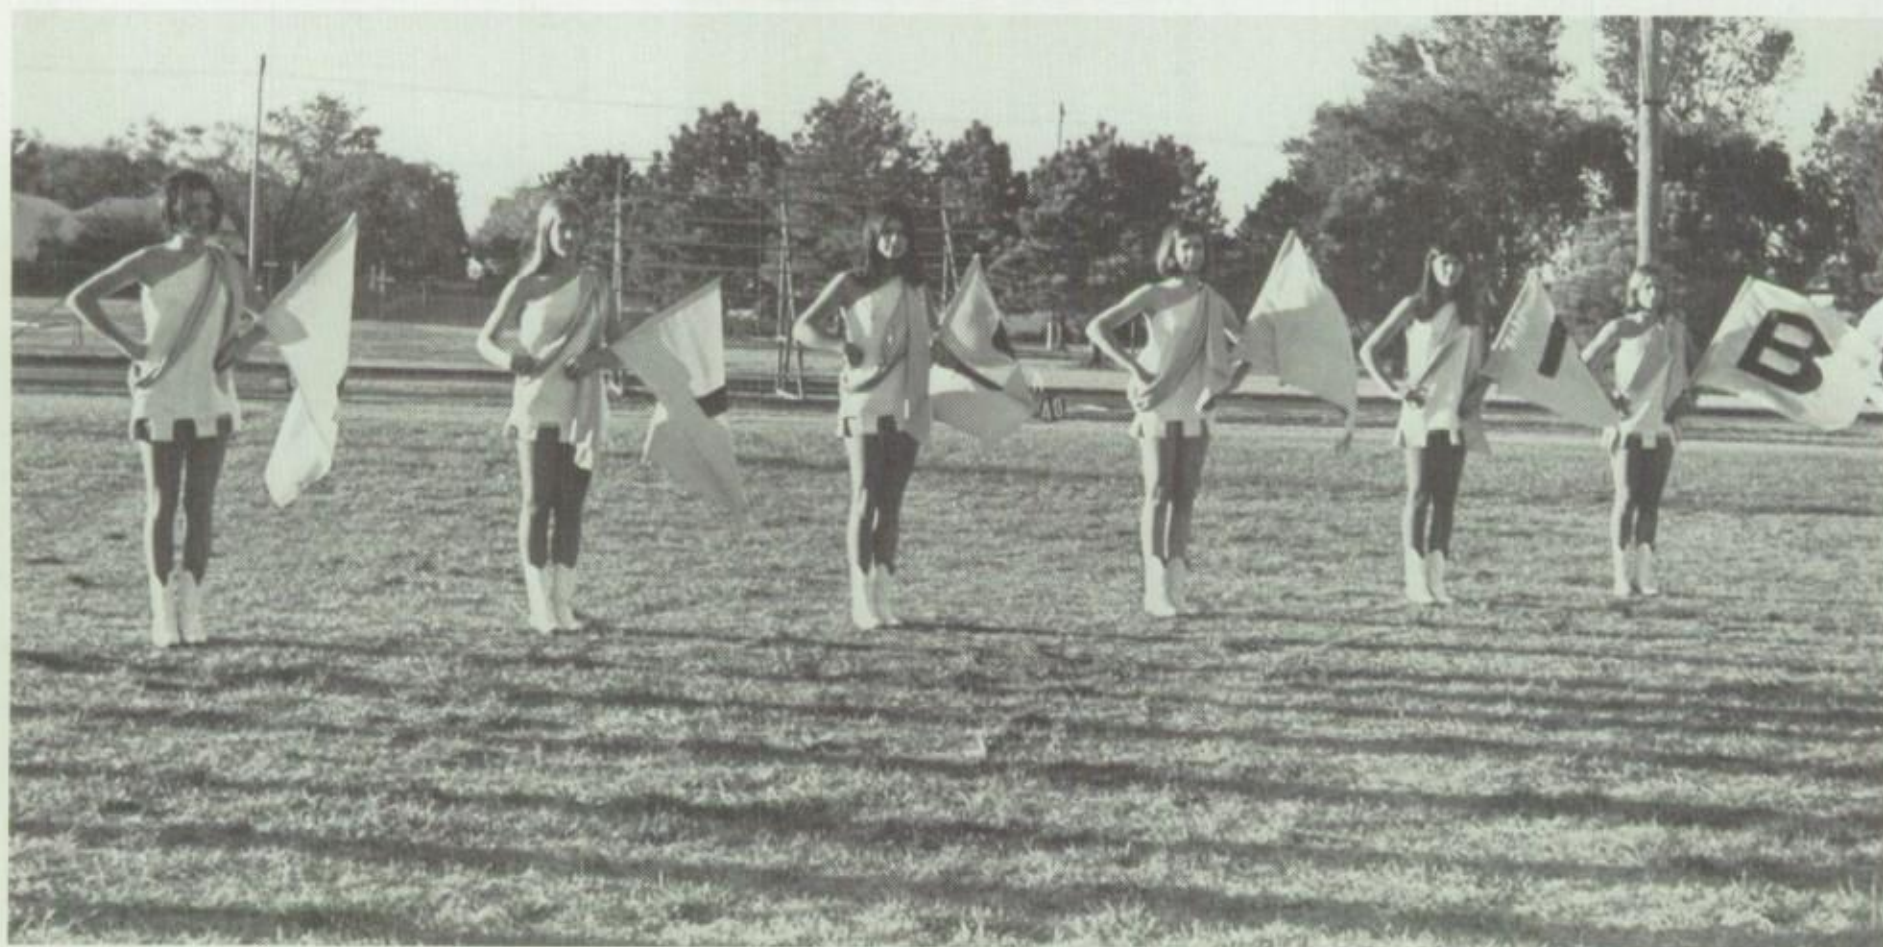

Pep Band shows overall power.

Shouldn't they be "clowning around"?

Campaigns for 1972-1973 officers brought spirited competition among the candidates.

The Student Council chose the lyceums which the student body saw. Among these was a talk by Abraham Lincoln.

The Stu-Co float captured second-place honors in the Homecoming parade before disintegrating in the middle of Mill Street.

Student Council members sold baked goods during the cook's vacation.

Money-raising projects undertaken included a campaign to put a Trojan on every car.

On your mark, get set, GO!!

Fogo and Mehl finish a long race.

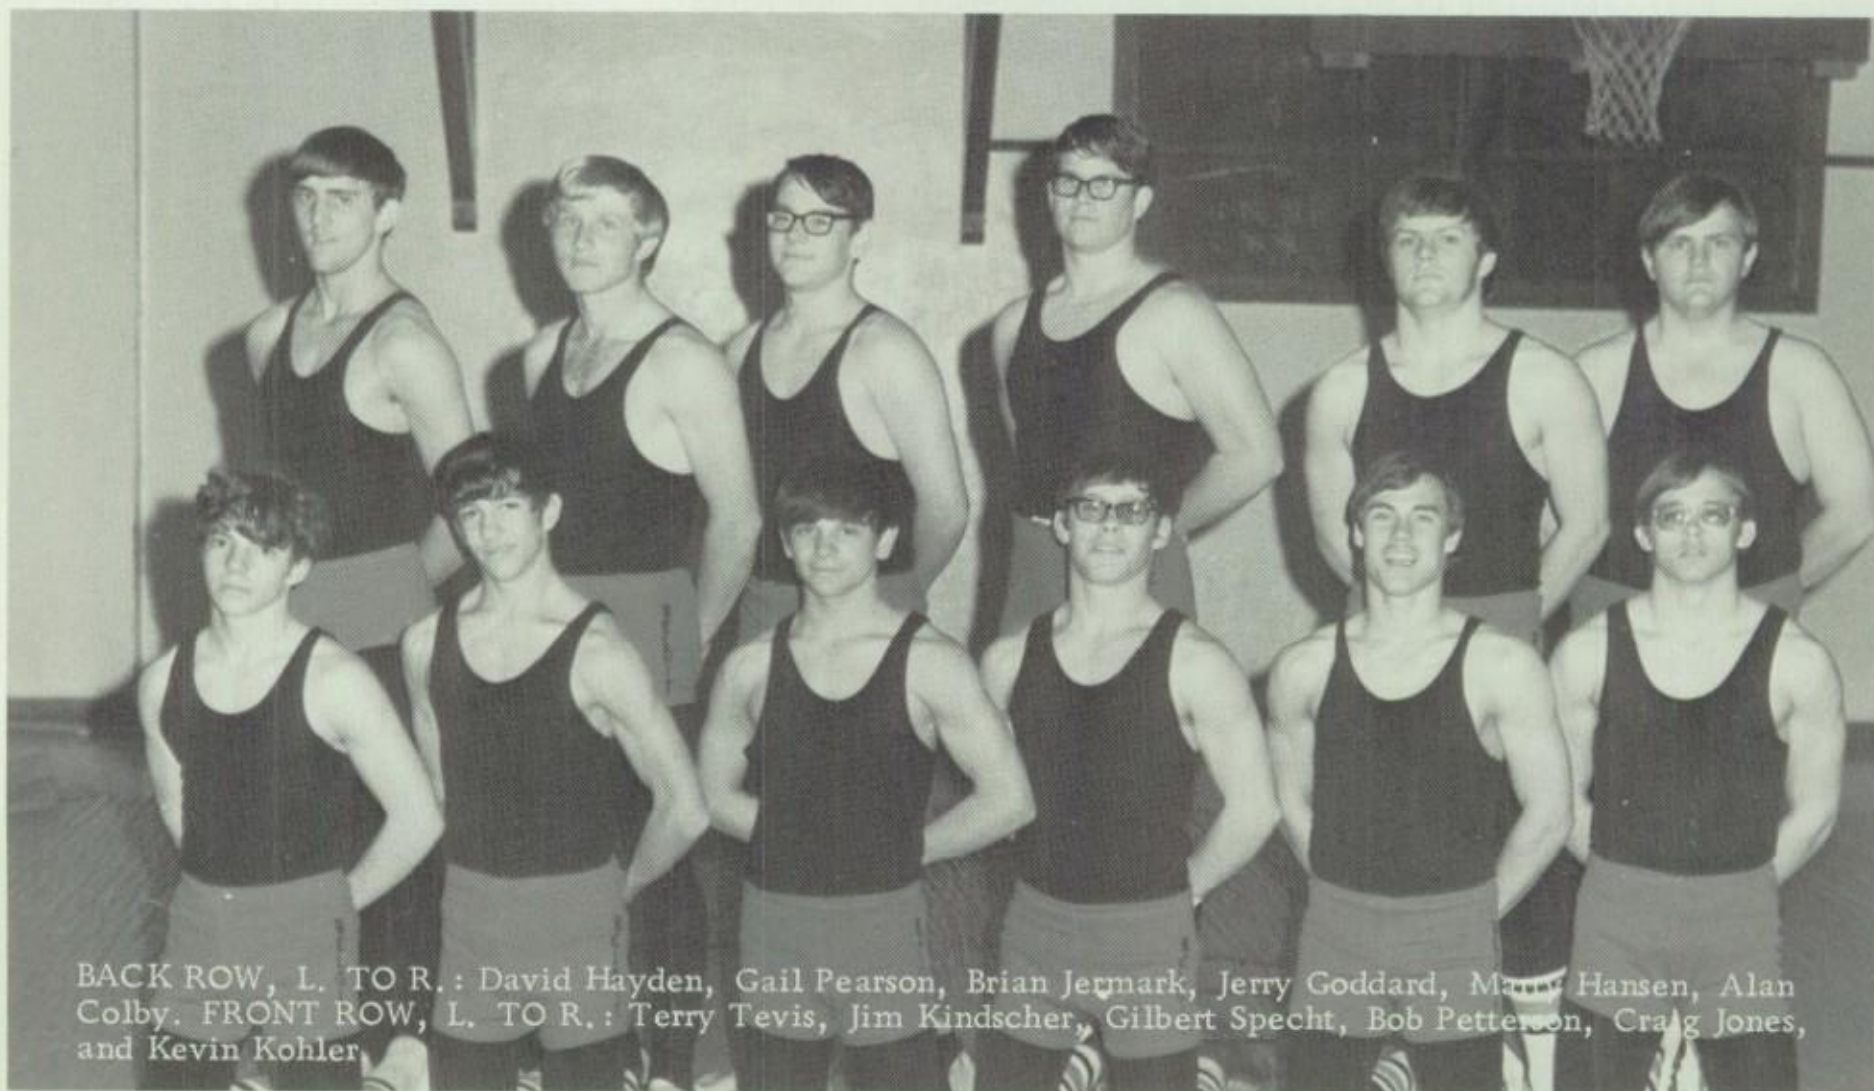

Go Jonesey, Go... Stick'em... What in the *%$# does that ref think he's doing... Sit down coach before you get another "T"... The 1972 wrestling season this year ended with a 4-3-1 record while two boys placed in the state tournament at Colby. With a new coach, Ken Piazza, there was a new type of wrestling team. One that was better and stronger with more pride than any other this school has had. The hope is that this new breed of wrestlers will last from now until ever.

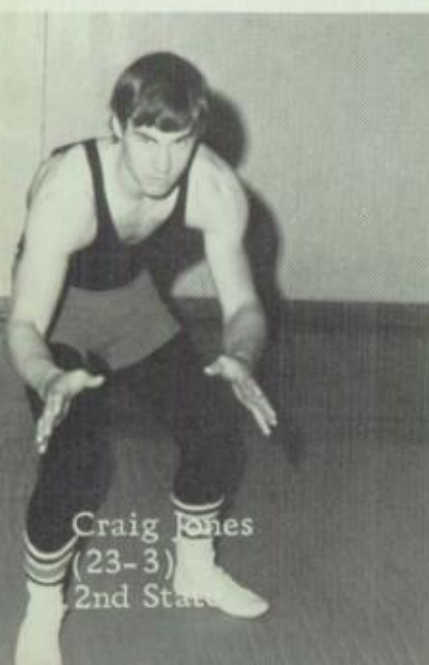

Jermark tries for a switch.

Williams misses at six feet.

Ludwig closes in on the leader in the 180 yard low hurdles.

Jones confers with Coach Rowh on how he did in the long jump.

GIRLS TRACK

This year the girls track team got off to a slow start. But the constant encouragement and advice from Coach Bean got the girls to going just in time to place third in the tough Beloit Invitational meet. Karen Bassford, Cathy Kirgis, Barb Smith and Deb Stroup went to the Regional Meet, and Barb and Deb got the honor of participating in the State Track Meet in Wichita.

Kirgis is in the lead as she goes over the last hurdle.
